MEMORANDUM

TO: Members, Public Disclosure Commission

FROM: Susan Harris, Assistant Director

DATE: August 19, 2002

RE: Executive Summary and Staff Recommendations Regarding the Washington State Democratic Central Committee

Failure to Timely Report Contributions and Expenditures

On July 8, 2002, Staff filed a formal complaint against the Washington State Democratic Central Committee (WSDCC) for allegedly violating RCW 42.17.065, .080 and .090 by failing to timely report contributions in its exempt account totaling over $5,931,000. We have now concluded our investigation into the matter.

The investigation revealed that between July 1 and December 31, 2000, the WSDCC made 191 deposits into its exempt account totaling $8,351,581. C-3 reports for 144 of these deposits were substantially timely. The WSDCC failed to timely file 57 C-3 reports totaling $5,956,418. The investigation also revealed that the WSDCC failed to report over $1,065,000 in expenditures on time.

On August 30, 2001, the WSDCC filed 20 C-3 reports for contributions received between September 6 and October 10, 2000. These C-3 reports totaled $2,891,807.

On January 8, 2002, the WSDCC filed 13 C-3 reports for contributions received between October 11 and December 18, 2000 totaling $1,826,595.

On July 24, 2002, after Staff began its investigation, the WSDCC filed 14 C-3 reports totaling $1,105,396. These C-3 reports were for deposits made between June 15 and October 27, 2000.

On August 1, 2002, the WSDCC submitted the final 10 C-3 reports, totaling $132,620, covering the period between September 5, 2000 and December 19, 2000.

In addition to failing to timely file C-3 reports, the WSDCC failed to file six reports of last minute contributions received within seven days of the primary election totaling $505,603 (each of the last-minute contributions exceeded $500.) The WSDCC also any right that these matters remain secret and private."*

RCW 42.17.010 (10)

failed to file a last minute contribution report for a contribution of $16,872 received on October 16, 2000 (within 21 days of the general election.)¹

The investigation also revealed that more than $1,065,000 in expenditures made during 2000 was not timely reported. The WSDCC filed amended C-4 reports for 2000 on July 24, 2002. Those reports indicate that an additional $1,065,649 were not reported on C-4 reports filed during 2000. The late reported expenditures were primarily transfers to the WSDCC's federal committee.

Paul Berendt, Chair of the WSDCC, acknowledges that the party failed to timely report all activities of the WSDCC exempt account. He has publicly stated that he was unaware of the problems until the press coverage. Mr. Berendt was made aware of at least part of the problem in August, 2001, when he called PDC staff after our initial inquiry regarding missing C-3 reports.

The comptroller stated that she filed all of the reports when required to do so. She said that the reports she filed with PDC on August 30, 2001 and January 8, 2002 were "courtesy copies" of previously filed reports. She also stated she filed last minute contribution reports for all of the contributions received during the special reporting period, although PDC has no record of receiving any of these filings. A review of documents on file with King County Records and Elections revealed that they also did not have copies of any of the reports at issue.

During the time in question, the WSDCC had a change in comptrollers. The new comptroller, who assumed that position at the end of June, 2000, when the problems started, had previously been the part-time office manager/receptionist for the WSDCC. While she has had formal higher education (according to Mr. Berendt, she is a PhD), she is not a trained accountant. She was placed in the position of comptroller in the midst of the presidential/gubernatorial elections when campaign contributions were at their peak. She was charged with handling the accounting and reporting of millions of dollars, and was given no training on PDC rules or regulations. Nor did anyone at the WSDCC supervise or review her work to ensure that she was reporting everything properly.

PDC staff first notified the WSDCC officials of the possibility of missing reports in August, 2001. At that time, the WSDCC staff did not review the comptroller's work to insure that all other reports were submitted to PDC. When contacted by PDC staff in December, 2001, again, no review was made of the comptroller's work to insure that all reports were submitted on time. Until press coverage of this non-reporting issue occurred in July of this year, no one at the WSDCC reviewed the comptroller's work. She reconciled reports to the accounting system "when she had time," which was seldom. After the PDC staff began its investigation, the WSDCC hired a campaign compliance consultant to review all activities of the exempt account to determine if other reports had not been filed. The consultant found 24 additional C-3 reports that had not been submitted to PDC and over $1,065,000 in expenses that had not previously been reported.

Staff does not believe these omissions and errors were intentional but they do constitute gross negligence. The non-reporting issues were caused by the WSDCC's failure to provide training or to have adequate controls and supervision over the person(s) handling and reporting contributions. Staff recommends that the Commission find that the WSDCC committed multiple apparent violations of RCW 42.17.065, .080, .090, and .105 and refer the matter to the Office of the Attorney General for further action.

Failure to Forfeit Funds Received From a Non-Reporting Political Committee Which Failed to File Reports Within 10 Days

During the investigation, staff reviewed reports filed by out-of-state and federal committees to determine whether C-5 reports required by these entities had been timely filed. If no C-5 reports had been filed within 10 days of the WSDCC receiving the contributions, the WSDCC was required to forfeit the contributions to the State of Washington.

After our investigation had been initiated, on August 14, 2002, the Attorney General's Office forwarded a 45-day letter it had received from Richard Pope, alleging that the WSDCC violated RCW 42.17.090 (1)(i) by failing to forfeit funds it received from "non-reporting" entities that failed to timely file C-5 reports.

Our investigation revealed that between 1998 and 2002, the WSDCC received $1,010,995² from non-reporting committees which failed to timely file C-5 reports.

The WSDCC was notified of their requirement to forfeit $1,010,995. On August 19, 2002, the WSDCC notified PDC staff that they "were not in the position to forfeit those funds."

Staff recommends that the Commission find apparent violations of RCW 42.17.090(1)(i) by the WSDCC and refer the matter to the Attorney General's Office for further action.

² The original letter sent to the WSDCC on August 14, 2002, stated that $1,376,000 was to be forfeited. Four of these contributions, totaling $365,000, had been reported by the WSDCC as coming from The Democratic Leadership Corporate. Subsequent to that letter, the WSDCC informed staff that these four contributions had been timely reported under a different name: The Democratic Legislative Campaign Committee. The total amount that the WSDCC has failed to forfeit is $1,010,995.

I.
BACKGROUND

- 1.1 On July 8, 2002 Vicki Rippie, Executive Director of the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) filed a complaint against the Washington State Democratic Central Committee (WSDCC) alleging that it failed to report or timely report over $5,931,000 in contributions into its exempt funds account:
- On August 30, 2001, the WSDCC filed 24 reports reflecting over $2,976,000 in contributions received in September and October, 2000, from federal political committees associated with the National Democratic Party and other sources;
 - On October 16, 2001, the WSDCC filed a report indicating receipt of $100,000 on October 20, 2000, from the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee;
 - On January 8, 2002, the WSDCC filed 12 reports reflecting nearly $1,795,000 in contributions received between October and December, 2000, from federal political committees associated with the National Democratic Party and other sources; and
 - Information from news sources citing Federal Election Commission reports indicated an additional $1,060,000 in contributions was received by the WSDCC from federal political committees associated with the National Democratic Party had not yet been reported.
- 1.2 As part of the investigation, PDC staff reviewed reports filed by out-of-state or federal committees to determine whether C-5 reports, required within 10 days of receipt of a contribution, had been timely filed.

RCW 42.17.010 (10)

- 1.3 On August 14, 2002, the Office of the Attorney General forwarded a Citizen Action Letter (45-day letter) from Richard Pope, alleging that the WSDCC failed to forfeit funds it received from several out-of-state or federal committees which failed to timely file C-5 reports.

II. SCOPE.

- 2.1 Staff reviewed WSDCC Exempt Account PDC C-3 and C-4 reports as well as Last Minute Contribution reports for activity in calendar year 2000.
- 2.2 Staff reviewed Federal Election Commission reports filed by the Democratic National Committee (DNC), the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee (DSCC) and the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC) for activity during 2000.
- 2.3 Staff reviewed C-5 reports filed by “non-reporting” committees that contributed to the WSDCC between 1998 and 2002 to determine if these reports were timely filed.
- 2.4 Staff interviewed Paul Berendt, Chairman of the WSDCC, under oath on July 25, 2002.
- 2.5 Staff interviewed Annette Anderson, Comptroller of the WSDCC, under oath on July 25, 2002.

III. LAW

- 3.1 RCW 42.17.065(2) states: “A continuing political committee shall file with the commission and the auditor or elections officer of the county in which the commission maintains its office or headquarters...(a) The information required by RCW 42.17.090...”
- 3.2 RCW 42.17.080 requires candidates and political committees to file reports of contributions and expenditures on specific dates.
- 3.3 RCW 42.17.080(3) states: “For the period beginning the first day of the fourth month preceding the date on which the special or general election is held and ending on the date of that election, each Friday¹ the treasurer shall file with the commission and the appropriate county elections officer a report of each bank deposit made during the previous seven calendar days. The report shall contain the name of each person contributing the funds so deposited and the amount contributed by each person...Each report shall be certified as correct by the treasurer..."

- 3.4 RCW 42.17.090(1)(b) requires: "The name and address of each person who has made one or more contributions during the period, together with the money value and date of such contributions and the aggregate value of all contributions received from each such person during the current calendar year..."
- 3.5 RCW 42.17.090(1)(l) states: "Funds received from a political committee not otherwise required to report under this chapter...shall be forfeited to the state of Washington unless the nonreporting committee has filed or within ten days following such receipt files with the commission a statement..."
- 3.6 RCW 42.17.105 requires special reports to be filed if a person contributes over $500² in the aggregate during the seven days preceding the primary election or twenty-one days preceding the general election. "The special report required of a contribution recipient...shall be delivered to the commission within forty-eight hours of the time, or on the first working day after..."
- 3.7 RCW 42.17.640(14) states: "The following contributions are exempt from the contribution limits of this section:
 - (a) An expenditure or contribution earmarked for voter registration, for absentee ballot information, for precinct caucuses, for get-out-the-vote campaigns, for precinct judges or inspectors, for sample ballots, or for ballot counting, all without promotion of or political advertising for individual candidates; or
 - (b) An expenditure by a political committee for its own internal organization or fund raising without direct association with individual candidates."

IV. FINDINGS

History

- 4.1 The WSDCC is the governing body of the state organization of the Democratic Party. Paul Berendt is its current Chairman, and has held the position since 1995.
- 4.2 Annette Anderson is the WSDCC's Comptroller. She was placed in that position the first part of July 2000 after the departure of the previous comptroller. Ms. Anderson had previously been employed as the part-time office manager of the ² Chapter 54, 2001 Sessions Laws changed the threshold of contributions subject to special reporting from more than $500 to $1000 or more, effective January 1, 2002.

WSDCC. Ms. Anderson stated that when she was placed in the position of comptroller, she received no training on PDC rules and regulations.

- 4.3 The WSDCC has both a federal political committee and a state political committee.
- 4.4 The state political committee has two accounts--the non-exempt account and the exempt account. The exempt account is not subject to contribution limits of RCW 42.17.640, but is subject to restrictions on its use found in RCW 42.17.640(14). The WSDCC exempt account is used primarily for get-out-the-vote activity and for internal organization and fund raising purposes. The WSDCC non-exempt account is used for direct candidate support.
- 4.5 During an election cycle, the exempt account of the WSDCC may actually consist of more than one bank account. The activities of the exempt accounts are incorporated into one set of reports for disclosure purposes.
- 4.6 Most of the contributions received and deposited into the WSDCC exempt funds account(s) in 2000 were between $5,000 and nearly $500,000. Early in the 2000 election year, smaller contributions were received and deposited into the exempt account. As it got closer to the election, larger contributions were received.
- 4.7 The WSDCC exempt account received most of its funds in 2000 from federal political organizations associated with the national Democratic Party. Those entities included: The Democratic National Committee (DNC), the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee (DSCC) and the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC.)
- 4.8 When the DNC, the DSCC or the DCCC contributed funds to the WSDCC exempt account in 2000, they transmitted those funds by electronic wire transfer. The WSDCC received verbal notification from the committee(s) that the transfers were occurring, and from the bank which sent written notification that the transfers had occurred and the funds had been deposited into the WSDCC's bank account.³ WSDCC staff would enter the information into the party's accounting software and also enter the same information into the reporting software.
- 4.9 Between July 1 and December 31, 2000, the WSDCC made 191 deposits into its exempt fund account totaling $8,351,581. C-3 reports for 57 of these deposits were not timely filed (See Exhibit 1.) The late C-3 reports were filed as follows:

³ During his interview, Paul Berendt stated he was unaware of how notification was received by the WSDCC. Annette Anderson, WSDCC Comptroller, stated that Mr. Berendt received notification from the contributor as well as the bank and would pass the information on to her for accounting purposes. In subsequent conversations with Mr. Berendt, he denied receiving any notification. The receptionist opens all mail and places the mail in the appropriate "in-box".

- 20 reports were filed on August 30, 2001 for deposits made between September 6 and October 10, 2000,
- 13 reports were filed on January 1, 2002 for deposits made between October 11 and December 18, 2000,
- 14 reports were filed on July 24, 2002 for deposits made between June 15 and November 27, 2000, and
- 10 reports were filed on August 1, 2002 for deposits made between September 5 and December 19, 2000.

The total amount of the late C-3 reports was $5,956,418.

August 30, 2001 C-3 Filings

- 4.10 Between September 6, 2000 and October 10, 2000, the WSDCC made twenty deposits totaling $2,891,807 into its exempt funds account without filing C-3 reports in a timely manner. (See Exhibit 1A.) The deposits were included on the appropriate Schedule A to C-4, but the source of the contributions was not disclosed. (See sample Schedule A filing attached as Exhibit 2.)
- 4.11 PDC staff contacted Annette Anderson on August 17, 2001 regarding an inquiry it had received regarding the WSDCC filings. On August 21, 2001, Paul Berendt contacted PDC staff regarding the alleged missing C-3 reports. On August 24, 2001, Annette Anderson contacted PDC. Ms. Anderson said that she believed the contributions in question were included on "last minute contribution reports" and on Schedule A to C-4 reports but not on the C-3 reports. (See Exhibit 3.) Ms. Anderson was instructed to file the reports if they had not already been submitted.
- 4.12 On August 30, 2001, the WSDCC filed twenty C-3 reports that had not previously been submitted, covering the period of September 6, 2000 through October 10, 2000, totaling $2,891,807⁴. In addition, Ms. Anderson included a cover letter with those reports in which she stated that the information had been "reported with Last Minute Contribution Forms, C-3s and C4s for the State Exempt account." (See Exhibit 4.)
- 4.13 When questioned under oath during her interview, Ms. Anderson stated that she believed the reports submitted on August 30, 2001 had originally been filed on time. On July 24, 2002, Paul Berendt issued a response to the complaint filed by PDC staff. In that response Mr. Berendt stated: "We believe these contributions were reported in a timely manner in the fall of 2000, though we were unable to confirm that through an examination of the PDC records." (See Exhibit 5.)

⁴ The WSDCC also re-filed copies of some C-3 reports that had been submitted when due.

- 4.14 On July 31, 2002, PDC reviewed all reports filed by the WSDCC with King County Records and Elections and during 2000, 2001 and 2002 to date. PDC staff could not locate any of the C-3 reports filed on August 30, 2001, or on the date that Ms. Anderson alleges the forms were originally filed.

January 8, 2002 C-3 Filings

- 4.15 Between October 11, 2000 and December 18, 2000 the WSDCC made thirteen deposits totaling $1,826,595 into its exempt account without filing C-3 reports in a timely manner. (See Exhibit 1B.) The deposits were included on the appropriate Schedule A to C-4 form but the source of the contributions was not disclosed. The C-3 reports were not filed until January 8, 2002, after PDC staff informed the WSDCC of the missing reports.
- 4.16 On December 20, 2001, PDC staff contacted WSDCC and asked for missing C-3 reports. A memo, sent to Annette Anderson, listed 16 deposits totaling $1,920,643 that appeared on the WSDCC exempt account Schedule A to C-4 reports, but had no corresponding C-3 report. On January 7, 2002, Ms. Anderson submitted a response indicating that one of the deposits, in the amount of $28,700 listed on a Schedule A "did not occur in the State Exempt Account."⁵ Another deposit was an internal transfer between accounts.
- 4.17 On January 8, 2002, the WSDCC filed C-3 reports totaling $1,878,335 reflecting 14 deposits into its exempt account between October 11, 2000 and December 18, 2000. One C-3 reflecting a deposit of $51,740 was originally filed in October 2000. The total amount reported late on January 8, 2002 was $1,826,595.
- 4.18 In his response dated July 24, 2002, Mr. Berendt stated that: "...it does appear that, as a result of an administrative error, the Party failed to file C-3 reports with respect to the listed contributions...until January 8, 2002." (See Exhibit 5.)
- 4.19 On July 31, 2002 PDC reviewed all reports filed by the WSDCC with King County Records and during 2000, 2001 and 2002 to date. PDC staff could not locate any of the C-3 reports filed on January 8, 2002 or on the date that Ms. Anderson alleges the forms were originally filed.

July 24, 2002/August 1, 2002 C-3 Filings

- 4.20 Between January 1 and June 14, 2000, it appears that the WSDCC timely reported contributions into its exempt account. Beginning June 15, 2000 and through the month of June, the WSDCC deposited $465,924 into its exempt account and did not report the source of the funds until July 24, 2002.

⁵ This amount was later determined to be the net amount of a contribution used for a mailing. The actual contribution amount was $378,700, and the mailing cost was $350,000. Amended reports were filed on July 24, 2002 to correct this error. The C-3 for the $378,700 contribution was filed on January 8, 2002.

- 4.21 In July and August 2000, the WSDCC deposited $614,472 into its exempt account but failed to file C-3 reports for these deposits until July 24, 2002. (See Exhibit 1C.) Only one deposit made during this period was included on the original Schedule A and in the C-4 totals. Amended C-4 reports filed July 24, 2002 included these deposits.
- 4.22 The complaint filed by PDC staff stated that it appeared that over $1,060,000⁶ was received by the WSDCC but had yet to be reported. After the complaint was filed, Mr. Berendt hired a campaign compliance consultant to review the WSDCC books of account. On July 24, 2002, the WSDCC submitted amended C-4 reports for all of 2000 along with C-3 reports that the consultant determined had not been filed. Some of the C-3 reports submitted by the consultant were duplicative of reports previously filed, and failed to include C-3's for other receipts. However, the packet contained the C-3's totaling $1,105,396 in deposits that had not been filed at the time they were due.
- 4.23 On August 1, 2002, the WSDCC submitted additional C-3's for contributions totaling $132,620 that had not been previously reported. (See Exhibit 1D.) Two deposits from this group were not included on the original Schedule A or C-4 totals. Amended C-4 reports filed July 24, 2002 included these deposits. The consultant later realized that these additional C-3 reports had not yet been submitted
- 4.24 The C-3's filed on July 24, 2002 and August 1, 2002, for contributions not previously reported, totaled $1,238,016.
- 4.25 Regarding the contributions totaling over $1,060,000 as listed in the complaint, Mr. Berendt stated in his July 24, 2002 letter that: "As a result of an administrative error, it does appear that these contributions were not reported to the Public Disclosure Commission until this week." (See Exhibit 5.)

Schedule A/C-4 Omissions

- 4.26 The review also determined that the C-4 reports originally filed understated total contributions received by $1,065,657. Amended reports filed July 24, 2002 included deposits not included on the original reports, and included corrections to other reporting issues as well. (See Exhibit 6.)

⁶ The original complaint indicated that news articles citing the FEC indicate that $1,060,000 was still not reported by the WSDCC. Those figures are based on contributions received from the federal political committees associated with the National Democratic Party. It was discovered that other receipts had not been previously reported.

- 4.27 This investigation did not include a complete of expenditures. However, it was noted that the amended reports filed on July 24, 2002 for calendar year 2000 included $1,065,649 in expenses not previously reported. (See Exhibit 6.) These expenditures appear to be primarily for transfers to the party's federal account to pay for joint expenses as required by federal law.

Last Minute Contributions

- 4.28 The 2000 Primary Election was held on September 19, 2000. From September 12, 2000 through September 18, 2000, contributions of over $500 in the aggregate during this period were required to be reported by the WSDCC within 48 hours of receipt. Six contributions were received within this time period for which the WSDCC made no special reporting:

9/12/2000	DCCC	$10,640
9/12/2000	DNC	64,744
9/13/2000	DCCC	308,000 ⁷
9/13/2000	DCCC	21,280
9/14/2000	DNC	19,424
9/15/2000	DNC	81,515

The "last minute contribution" reports for these contributions were received by PDC on August 30, 2001, at the same time the C-3 reports were filed. (See Exhibit 7.)

- 4.29 The General Election was held on November 7, 2000. From October 16, 2000 through November 6, 2000, contributions of over $500 in the aggregate during this period were required to be reported by the WSDCC within 48 hours of receipt. A contribution of $16,872 was received on October 16, 2000 and no special report was filed within 48 hours. (This contribution is one that was not reported until January 8, 2002.)

Failure to Forfeit Contributions from Non-Reporting Committees Which failed to file timely C-5 Reports

- 4.30 As part of the initial investigation, PDC staff reviewed reports filed by out-of-state or federal committees to determine whether C-5 reports, required within 10 days of receipt of a contribution, had been timely filed.
- 4.31 On August 14, 2002, the Attorney General's Office forwarded to PDC a 45-day letter it received from Richard Pope alleging that the WSDCC violated RCW 42.17.090 (1)(l) when it failed to forfeit contributions it received from several out-of-state and federal committees which failed to file a C-5 reports within 10 days of the date the WSDCC received the contribution.

⁷ This contribution was reported on August 30, 2001, as received from the DSCC. However, in his response to the PDC complaint, Mr. Berendt stated that the contribution was actually from the DCCC.

- 4.32 Between 1998 and 2002, the WSDCC received 27 contributions, totaling $1,010,995, from federal political committees, or "non-reporting" committees which failed to timely file C-5 reports. (See Exhibit 8.) All but four of these contributions were received during 2000. The WSDCC was notified on August 14, 2002 of the requirement to forfeit these funds because the non-reporting committees either failed to file a C-5 or filed the report more than 10 days after the WSDCC received the funds. On August 19, 2002, the WSDCC, by letter and through a telephone conversation with its Chair, Paul Berendt, notified PDC staff that it "would not be in a position to forfeit any funds on August 21, 2002." (See Exhibit 9.)
- 4.33 PDC staff's initial letter to the WSDCC indicated that there were 31 contributions from non-reporting committees, totaling $1,376,495, which had not timely filed C-5 reports. The WSDCC informed staff that four of the contributions in question in the amount of $365,500 had been timely reported under a different name. The WSDCC reported the contributor as The Democratic Leadership Corporate. The Federal Election Commission had no record of such a committee. A further review of C-5 reports filed in 2000 revealed that the contributions in question were reported by the Democratic Legislative Campaign Committee. The total amount that the WSDCC has failed to forfeit is $1,010,995.

Additional WSDCC Responses

- 4.34 Ms. Anderson was asked under oath during her interview whether she reviewed the entire WSDCC exempt account to determine if other information had not previously been submitted after first being notified in August, 2000 of a potential problem, Ms. Anderson replied: "Following the receipt of these I had my assistant go through and do a double checking of...what was submitted against what was in our reporting system as opposed to what was in our accounting system and do a reconciliation....Basically again these documents were within our records so I assumed they had been filed."
- 4.35 When asked whether she routinely reconciled PDC reports with bank statements to insure all information was accurately reported, Ms. Anderson stated, under oath, that she did so only when she had time, and that was not often.

Respectfully submitted this 19th day of August 2002.

Susan Harris
Assistant Director

Reviewed request / inquiry from Edelman re missing C-3s. We reviewed alleged missing C3s for 29m.

Asked for dates of C-3/CS that transfers, deposits were reported. I asked that we look @ high dollar figures - then those deposits close to $100k. I'll

Call Annette later this week as previously agreed.

8/24 Annette Anderson - WSOCC. Re: ^{other people to} edelman inquiry.
Everything was reported as CMC, ~~but~~ then on Sch A, but not everything was on a C-3s. She will send a packet of documentation of what she found. -- I started if there were missing CBS, I would request them now.

Re: Requested Information

Dear Suemary:

I have enclosed information requested by your office.

Information for the first 3 items was included in the State Non Exempt C4 Reports.

All other information was reported with Last Minute Contribution forms, C3s and C4s for the State Exempt account.

If you have questions or if you need additional information, please do not hesitate contact our office: 206-583-0664, Ext 20.

Sincerely,

Annette Anderson

TO: Susan Harris, Assistant Director
Public Disclosure Commission

FROM: Paul Berendt, Chairman
Washington State Democratic Party

RE: Complaint Against Washington State Democratic Central Committee

Thank you for the opportunity to respond to the July 8, 2002 Complaint against the Washington State Democratic Central Committee. As you know, since the date these reporting lapses were first brought to my attention, we have diligently worked with the Public Disclosure Commission to provide information and to cooperate with the Commission's investigation.

In this memorandum, I would like to very briefly respond to each of the paragraphs of the July 8 Complaint.

1. On August 30, 2001, the WSDCC filed 24 C-3 reports reflecting over $2,976,000 in contributions received in September and October, 2000. Based on the reports filed, $2,876,000 of these contributions were from federal political committees associated with the National Democratic Party; an additional $100,000 was from other sources. (See Attachment 1.)

• Our comptroller pulled the following records from our files. We believe that these contributions were reported in a timely manner in the fall of 2000, though we were unable to further confirm that through an examination of the PDC records. They fall into two categories: (1) contributions that were filed with both a C-3 and a last minute filing form; and (2) contributions that were reported with only a C-3. The documents listed here are attached as Exhibit A to this statement.

The asterisks note contributions that were additionally refiled as a courtesy to the PDC on August 24, 2001.

- This issue was brought to the Washington State Democrats' attention by the Public Disclosure Commission nearly a year ago. Though we believe the reports had already been filed, C-3 reports were immediately re-filed on August 30, 2001.

- All of these contributions were additionally reported on timely filed C-4 filings by the Democrats.

- All of these contributions were also timely reported by the donors on C-5 filings, where required. I have attached as Exhibit B to this statement relevant excerpts of the C-5 reports filed by the donor organizations.

- Please note that the C-3 reports filed on August 30, 2001, for a DCCC non-federal account contribution on September 13, 2000 (reported as $308,000) and a contribution from the DSCC non-federal PAC on September 19, 2000 (reported in the amount of $315,000) apparently transposed the dollar figures of those contributions. As you know, we have recently filed amended C-3 reports to correct this typographical error.

2. On October 16, 2001, the WSDCC filed a C-3 report indicating receipt of $100,000 on October 10, 2000 from the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee. (See Attachment 1.)

- This allegation erroneously alleges that the State Party received a $100,000 contribution in October 2000 from DSCC. As a result of a typographical error on the Washington State Democrats' C-3 filing, the date was misstated. This contribution was received on October 10, 2001, and reported on October 16, 2001. I have attached as Exhibit C a copy of the deposited check and the bank deposit records. The date of the contribution can be independently verified by examination of the DSCC's C-5 report to the PDC (attached as Exhibit D).

3. On January 8, 2002, the WSDCC filed 12 C-3 reports showing nearly over $1,795,000 in contributions received in October, November and December, 2000. Based on the reports filed, $1,740,000 of these contributions were from federal political committees associated with the National Democratic Party; an additional $55,000 was from other sources. (See Attachment 1.)

- Upon examining our records, it does appear that, as a result of an administrative error, the Party failed to file C-3 reports with respect to the listed contributions, totaling $1,794,926, until January 8, 2002.

- This matter was brought to the State Party's attention nearly seven months ago, in late December 2001. The Party immediately filed C-3 reports with respect to every one on these contributions (on January 8, 2002). I have attached as Exhibit E the correspondence concerning these contributions.

- All of these contributions were timely reported on the Washington State Democrat's C-4 report.

- All of these contributions were timely reported on the donor organization's C-5 filings, where required. I have attached, as Exhibit F, copies of the C-5 reports filed by the donor organizations.

- With regard to the amounts totaling $395,941 (represented by the DNC contributions of $36,033 and $359,908 on Attachment 2 to the Complaint), I sent a letter to the PDC about the confusion surrounding these amounts and discussed the same with you earlier this month. C-5 filings representing the full amount were filed with the PDC as three contributions: $203,949 on June 8, 2000, $95,417 on June 16, and $96,575 on June 23. Those C-5 filings and the letter are attached as Exhibit G.

4. Information from news articles citing Federal Election Commission reports indicate that the WSDCC has failed to report an additional $1,060,000 in contributions allegedly received between June 29, 2000 and September 5, 2000. (See Attachment 2.)

- As a result of an administrative error, it does appear that these contributions were not reported to the Public Disclosure Commission until this week.

- All of these contributions were timely reported by the donors on C-5 filings, where required. I have attached, as Exhibit H to this statement, relevant excerpts of the C-5 reports filed by the donor organizations.

5. Additional Reporting Discrepancy.

As a result of our examination of our books, we have identified some other 2000 contributions that were not the subject of timely C-3 reports. We believe that some of these contributions were reported in a timely manner in the fall of 2000, though we were unable to confirm that through an examination of the PDC records. Those that we believe had been previously reported are marked with an asterisk and have been attached as Exhibit I to this statement.

All of those contributions were included in our C-4 filings and should also have been included in the donor organizations' reports. We have recently filed C-3 forms to report all of these contributions, regardless of whether we believe they were previously filed, but I wanted to be sure to bring them specifically to your attention.

* * * * *

On behalf of the Washington State Democrats, I can say that I am disappointed and chagrined at our administrative errors. I am, and have been throughout my service to the Washington State Democrats, committed to accurate and timely campaign finance disclosure reporting. I accept responsibility for these administrative errors and stand prepared to work in good faith with the Public Disclosure Commission to address them, and to take proactive steps to ensure that these errors do not recur in the future.

I look forward to answering your questions and cooperating with you to the fullest extent possible.

Re: C-5 Issue

Date: August 15, 2002

I am in receipt of your letter dated August 14, 2002 regarding the forfeiture of funds for the failure to file C-5 forms during the 2002 election cycle.

1. We will not be a position to forfeit any funds on August 21st.
2. We are reviewing the list of organizations that have allegedly failed to file C-5 forms and may contest some of the filing failures after a future review.
3. I have attached four letters and a C-5 form from the Democratic Legislative Campaign Committee for $390,500 of the contributions the PDC claims weren't filed.

I look forward to working with you to resolve this issue amenably.
